

Located between downtown Columbus and the south campus gateway, 25 Jeffrey Park is an upscale custom condominium development that features luxury residences in a clean contemporary style. G2 provided the landscape architectural services, including the preliminary plans, city approval documents, public presentations, and the construction documentation for the entire development. G2 also collaborated with realtors to produce marketing brochures, renderings and cut-sheets for the unit listings.

PROJECT INFORMATION

Location: Columbus, Ohio

Client: Mulberry Development Co.

Services: Conceptual Design
Design Development
Public Approvals / Presentations
Construction Documentation
Marking Material / Graphic Design

